1 Introduction

1.1 Why choose AQA for AS Drama and Theatre

Our specification provides students with the opportunity to explore theatre making and experience the richness an advanced course in drama and theatre offers.

A practical focus

We want students to have an inspiring experience of AS Drama and Theatre.

This qualification emphasises practical creativity alongside research and theoretical understanding.

Students learn through experience, seeing theatre and making theatre for themselves. Students are introduced to a wide range of theatrical styles and contexts as they explore plays practically and work on performances.

Students choose to develop as a:

- performer
- designer (lighting, sound, set, costume, puppets)
- director
- combination of these.

Whichever option they choose, students will gain many invaluable skills, both theatrical and transferable, to expand their horizons.

Engaging exams

Each exam paper is designed to allow students to demonstrate their creativity and imagination in interpreting set texts and apply independent thinking as they evaluate a live theatre production.

We've gained considerable expertise in setting exam questions and writing mark schemes for drama and theatre so we know how to create papers that build students' confidence and help them achieve their full potential.

When setting the paper, quality of marking is at the forefront of our minds. We know how important it is that your students get results that reflect their achievements.

Clear progression to higher education

Higher education institutions (HEIs) value and respect the skills our drama and theatre qualifications give students.

We developed this specification with help from HEIs and we've really made the most of the advice they gave us. By incorporating the approach they take with drama and theatre undergraduates into this AS, your students will be really well prepared for the demands of university and beyond.

Transferable skills

There's another reason our AS in Drama and Theatre is so valued.

Students of AQA Drama and Theatre develop skills that are not just essential for drama but applicable to a wide range of higher education subjects and in the workplace.

This specification refines students' collaborative skills, their analytical thinking and their approach to research.

Students grow in confidence and maturity as they successfully realise their own ideas. They learn to evaluate objectively and develop a sound appreciation of the influences that cultural and social contexts can have on decision making.

Whatever the future holds, students of AS Drama and Theatre emerge with a toolkit of transferable skills preparing them for their next steps.

1.2 Support and resources to help you teach

We've worked with experienced teachers to provide you with a range of resources that will help you confidently plan, teach and prepare for exams.

Teaching resources

Visit aqa.org.uk/7261 to see all our teaching resources. They include:

- schemes of work: ideas to help you plan your course with confidence
- co-teaching guidance: suggestions for how to co-teach the AS and A-level specifications to aid planning
- good practice guides: helping you inspire and challenge students to think creatively
- exemplification materials: marked student work supported by examiner commentaries and guidance
- suggested plays: to help you choose appropriate material for practical study. We have developed a broad list of suggested plays that you might like to consider for your students and will keep this updated to ensure it reflects the best of contemporary theatre.

Support service

- Training courses: helping you deliver AQA drama qualifications
- Subject expertise courses: for newly-qualified teachers to experienced teachers looking for fresh inspiration
- Drama advisory service: each school/college is allocated a non-exam assessment (NEA) Adviser. You can contact them for one-to-one advice on any aspect of the NEA and/or support with planning and delivery of course content.
- Subject community: access free resources and services offered by drama organisations and universities
- Support meetings: helping you with course delivery; offering practical teaching strategies and approaches that really work
- Teacher network group: contact colleagues at other schools/colleges to share ideas about resources and teaching strategies for the AQA specification

Preparing for exams

Visit aqa.org.uk/7261 for everything you need to prepare for our exams, including:

- past papers, mark schemes and examiners' reports
- specimen papers and mark schemes for new courses
- exemplar student answers with examiner commentaries.

Analyse your students' results with Enhanced Results Analysis (ERA)

Find out which questions were the most challenging, how the results compare to previous years and where your students need to improve. ERA, our free online results analysis tool, will help you see where to focus your teaching. Register at aqa.org.uk/era

For information about results, including maintaining standards over time, grade boundaries and our post-results services, visit aqa.org.uk/results

Keep your skills up-to-date with professional development

Wherever you are in your career, there's always something new to learn. As well as subject-specific training, we offer a range of courses to help boost your skills.

- Improve your teaching skills in areas including differentiation, teaching literacy and meeting Ofsted requirements.
- Prepare for a new role with our leadership and management courses.

You can attend a course at venues around the country, in your school or online – whatever suits your needs and availability. Find out more at coursesandevents.aqa.org.uk

2 Specification at a glance

This qualification is linear. Linear means that students undertake all non-exam assessment (NEA) in the certification year and sit the written exam at the end of the course.

2.1 Subject content

The subject content details the knowledge, understanding and skills that students are expected to develop throughout the course of study.

The subject content for AS Drama and Theatre is divided into two components:

1. Interpreting drama (page 11)
2. Process and performance (page 14)

Guidance is also provided on the theatrical skills students will need to work on.

In the practical component students may specialise in performing, lighting, sound, set, costume, puppets and/or directing.

2.2 Assessments

Component 1: Interpreting drama
What's assessed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Knowledge and understanding of drama and theatre • Study of one set play from a choice of seven • Analysis and evaluation of the work of live theatre makers
How it's assessed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Written exam: 2 hours • Open book • 80 marks • 40% of AS
Questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Section A: one two part question (from a choice) on a given extract from the set play chosen (25 marks per part, 50 marks in total) • Section B: one two part question (from a choice) on the work of theatre makers in a single live theatre production (30 marks)

Component 2: Process and performance (practical)

What's assessed

- Practical exploration and theatrical interpretation of two extracts (Extract 1 and 2) each taken from a different play

Methodology of a prescribed practitioner must be applied to Extract 2

Extract 2 is to be performed as a final assessed piece (students may contribute as performer, designer or director)

- Portfolio evidencing interpretive process and analysis and evaluation of performance

How it's assessed

- Performance of Extract 2 (30 marks)
- Portfolio (30 marks)
- 60 marks in total
- 60% of AS

This component is marked by teachers and moderated by AQA.

3 Subject content

Our AS Drama and Theatre offers students the opportunity to explore drama as a practical art form in which ideas and meaning are communicated to an audience through choices of form, style and convention.

Students will:

- create, perform and respond to drama and theatre
- explore the relationship between theory and practice
- develop the creativity and independence to become effective theatre makers.

The subject content details the knowledge, understanding and skills that students are expected to develop throughout the course of study.

The subject content for AS Drama and Theatre is divided into two components:

1. Interpreting drama (page 11)
2. Process and performance (page 14)

For the practical component students choose to work as performers, designers (design students may choose lighting, sound, set, costume or puppets) or directors.

Guidance is provided in Guidance on theatrical skills (page 16).

3.1 Interpreting drama

This subject content is assessed in a written exam.

See Component 1: Interpreting drama (page 21) for details.

3.1.1 Knowledge and understanding

Students must develop knowledge and understanding of the following analytical framework for making, performing, interpreting and understanding drama and theatre.

Content	Details
The theatrical processes and practices involved in interpreting and performing theatre How conventions, forms and techniques are used in drama and live theatre to create meaning How creative and artistic choices influence how meaning is communicated to an audience	Interpretative processes relating to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • practical demands of texts • the choice and use of performance space • patterns of stage movement • stage positioning and configuration • spatial relationships on stage • performer and audience configuration • character motivation and interaction • performers' vocal and physical interpretation of character • delivery of lines • listening and response • playing of sub-text • development of pace, pitch and dramatic climax • relationships between performers and audience • design of sets, costume, makeup, lighting, sound and props • design fundamentals such as scale, shape, colour, texture.
How performance texts are constructed to be performed, conveying meaning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • genre and form • structure • language • stage directions • character construction • style of play.
How performance texts are informed by their social, cultural and historical contexts and are interpreted and performed for an audience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the social, cultural and historical contexts of plays • interpretative and performance strategies.

3.1.2 Area of study 1 – Set plays

Students must study and explore practically one set play chosen from the list below.

Specific editions are not prescribed for these plays. However, we've listed the editions we use to set questions.

If you wish to use a different edition, we recommend you source a copy of the one we use to make sure it's similar. This will enable your students to access the questions on the paper. Adaptations are not appropriate.

Playwright	Set play
Sophocles	Antigone (The Three Theban Plays , translated by Robert Fagles, Penguin, 1984, ISBN: 0140444254)

Playwright	Set play
William Shakespeare	Much Ado About Nothing (ed Claire McEachern, Bloomsbury Arden Shakespeare, 2016, ISBN: 1472520297)
Carlo Goldoni	A Servant to Two Masters (ed Lee Hall, Methuen Drama, 1999, ISBN 0413748502)
Henrik Ibsen	Hedda Gabler (Student Edition, Bloomsbury, 2002, ISBN: 0413770702)
Bertolt Brecht	The Caucasian Chalk Circle (ed Eric Bentley, Penguin, 2007, ISBN: 0141189169)
Dario Fo	Accidental Death of an Anarchist (Methuen Drama, 1987, ISBN: 0413156109)
Jez Butterworth	Jerusalem (Nick Hern Books, 2009, ISBN: 1848420501)

These plays have been selected to represent significant drama through the ages.

Study should be targeted at developing ideas for how the play chosen may be interpreted and performed.

For the purposes of the exam all students must be prepared to answer questions from the perspective of at least two of the following three roles:

- performer
- designer (lighting, sound, set and costume)
- director.

Students must also develop knowledge and understanding of the subject content (as described in Knowledge and understanding (page 11)), in particular:

- how the play has been constructed to be performed and to communicate meaning
- how the play is informed by its social, cultural and historical context.

Students must not answer Section A and Section B of the exam on the same play ie the live production seen cannot be their set play.

Note for teachers whose students may take AS and then A-level: students taking the A-level exam must not answer on both Butterworth's Jerusalem from List A and Teale's Brontë from List B. This prohibited play combination does not pertain to this AS qualification in any way. This note is here to aid future planning.

3.1.3 Area of study 2 – Live theatre production

Students must learn how to analyse and evaluate the work of live theatre makers.

Students should aim to understand productions in terms of the relevant content listed in Knowledge and understanding (page 11), and in addition:

- the perceived or stated aims of the production team and their success in achieving them
- the creative collaboration of the performers, the designers, the director and other members of the creative team
- the audience experience and response.

Students should learn how to:

- articulate their understanding of how the theatre makers have communicated meaning to the audience
- consider in detail how aspects of the performance piece contributed to the impact of the production
- assess how aspects of the production contributed to its success or lack of success.

Prior to seeing a performance students are expected to have undertaken background research.

Live theatre could include:

- plays
- physical theatre
- theatre in education
- musical theatre.

Productions may be professional or amateur (not peer).

For the purposes of this specification live theatre can include digital recordings or streamed productions. The original production must have been performed live by the company no earlier than five years before the commencement of the student's course.

Students certificating after 1 January 2019 are required to experience live performance – in which they are a member of the audience in the same performance space as the performers. This may be a professional or amateur, but not a peer, performance. Schools/colleges must submit a 'Live Performance Statement' (which will be available on our website) to confirm that all students have completed this requirement. Failure to provide this statement prior to 1 May in the year of certification will be treated as maladministration. Students may still complete the 'Live theatre production' section of the exam paper referring to digital recordings or streamed productions.

Teachers must ensure that students see at least one performance which will enable them to access the exam questions and mark scheme in full. We recommend that this performance is a minimum of 50 minutes in duration (excluding any intervals or breaks) and that it includes at least two actors, dialogue and a range of production values (lighting, sound, set and costume).

Students must not answer Section A and Section B of the exam on the same play ie the live production seen cannot be their set play.

3.2 Process and performance

This subject content is assessed practically.

Each student must choose to be assessed as a:

- performer
- lighting designer
- sound designer
- set designer
- costume designer
- puppet designer
- director.

Costume designers may choose to include make-up and/or hair and/or masks. Set designers may choose to include design of props.

Each student may choose one or two of these specialisms.

See Component 2: Process and performance (page 23) for details.

3.2.1 Process

Students must learn how to create and develop ideas to communicate meaning as part of the theatre making process.

Students must draw on and demonstrate a practical understanding of the subject content listed in Knowledge and understanding (page 11).

Students must develop their ability to:

- carry out research
- develop their own ideas
- collaborate with other theatre makers
- explore devising, interpreting and rehearsal methods
- refine and amend work in progress
- analyse and evaluate their contribution to the success of performance.

Students must also study for this component the work and methodology of one influential theatre practitioner chosen from the list of Prescribed practitioners (page 18).

They must study:

- the social, cultural and historical context in which the practitioner is/was working
- theatrical purpose and practice
- artistic intentions
- innovative nature of their approach
- working methods
- theatrical style and use of conventions
- collaboration with/influence on other practitioners.

For assessment, students must produce a Portfolio linked to the practical exploration of two key extracts each from a different play.

See Portfolio (page 28) for details.

3.2.2 Performance

Students must learn how to contribute to text-based drama in a live theatre context for an audience.

Students must draw on and demonstrate a practical understanding of subject content listed in Knowledge and understanding (page 11).

Students must develop their ability to:

- interpret texts
- create and communicate meaning
- realise artistic intention in text-based drama.

For assessment, students must perform, direct or create realised designs for one of two key extracts studied. The influence of the work and methodology of the prescribed practitioner chosen must be evident within the performance.

See The performance of Extract 2 (page 27) for details.

3.3 Guidance on theatrical skills

3.3.1 Performer

Students who have chosen performing as a specialism are expected to:

- learn how to interpret characters or develop roles that contribute positively to the overall effect of the performance and are fully aligned with the dramatic aims of the group

- develop the ability to make appropriate recordings and/or selections of sound/music
- develop the ability to ensure sound levels, reverb, echo, recorded sound effects, fades, soundscapes or music are manipulated effectively
- adopt the latest safe working practices.

It is the student's sound design that is assessed. Although students are expected to operate the sound equipment when possible, this will not form part of the assessment.

3.3.4 Set designer

Students who have chosen set designer as a specialism are expected to:

- learn how to design and realise sets that contribute positively to the overall effect of performance and are fully aligned with the dramatic aims of the group
- develop interpretative skills, creativity and inventiveness
- develop the ability to create opportunities for the performers and meaning for an audience
- develop the ability to select and exploit appropriate staging forms and to maximise the effectiveness of selected space, use of scale and levels, perspective, configuration of performer/audience relationship
- develop the ability to design sets to accommodate the action and traffic of the piece including the positioning of entrances/exits, use of projections/media and effective and/or fluent scene changes
- develop the ability to select appropriate furnishings, texture, materials and colours
- develop the ability to ensure construction techniques are used effectively to achieve durability, security, practicality
- adopt the latest safe working practices.

It is the student's set design that is assessed. Although students are expected to construct the set when possible, this will not form part of the assessment.

3.3.5 Costume designer

Costume designs may include masks, hair and make-up as well as clothing.

Students who have chosen costume designer as a specialism are expected to:

- learn how to design and realise costumes that contribute positively to the overall effect of the performance and are fully aligned with the dramatic aims of the group
- develop interpretative skills, creativity and inventiveness, creating meaning for an audience
- develop the ability to produce designs capable of establishing character
- develop the ability to produce designs capable of establishing period, location, or contributing to mood/atmosphere
- develop the ability to select the appropriate materials to realise costumes showing an understanding of eg fabric, texture, trimmings, accessories
- develop the ability to create costumes showing an understanding of colour, shape, appropriate fit, period details, ethnic authenticity, movement constraints, ornamentation
- develop the ability to create costumes showing an understanding of the dramatic intentions of the piece, individual performer interpretations, theatrical devices
- adopt the latest safe working practices.

Where students include make-up and hair in their designs they are expected to:

- develop the ability to select appropriate materials to realise their make-up design showing an understanding of different types of make-up eg grease-paint, liquids, powders, facial hair, eyelashes, gum, putty, prosthetics, stage blood
- develop the ability to create character through make-up: aging, fantasy characters
- develop the ability to create hairstyles appropriate to character, period, age, ethnicity.

It is the student's costume design that is assessed. Although students are expected to assemble the costume(s) when possible, this will not form part of the assessment.

3.3.6 Puppet designer

Students who have chosen puppet designer as a specialism are expected to:

- learn how to design and realise puppets that contribute positively to the overall effect of the performance and are fully aligned with the dramatic aims of the group
- develop interpretative skills, creativity and inventiveness, creating opportunities for the performers and meaning for an audience
- develop the ability to select and exploit an appropriate style of puppet for the piece including marionette, shadow, hand, human-arm
- develop the ability to create a puppet with a defined character and with audience appeal
- develop the ability to select appropriate size, scale, shape and texture of puppet – human, animal or fantastical
- develop the ability to select appropriate costume, body, head, limbs for the puppet
- develop the ability to create a durable puppet that is easy for a puppeteer to manipulate and which engages the audience
- adopt the latest safe working practices.

It is the student's puppet design that is assessed. Although students are expected to construct and/or operate the puppet(s) when possible, this will not form part of the assessment.

3.3.7 Director

Students who have chosen directing as a specialism are expected to:

- learn how to develop directorial strategies that contribute positively to the overall effect of the performance and are fully aligned with the dramatic aims of the group
- develop the ability to communicate meaning to an audience through appropriate directorial interpretation of the extracts
- develop inventiveness and clarity of directorial vision
- develop the ability to explore material through rehearsal methods
- develop the ability to select, configure and exploit suitable performance spaces and to achieve appropriate performer/audience relationships
- develop the ability to apply (rehearsal) techniques in relation to for example direction of movement, spatial relationships, interactions, use of space, use of set/props to achieve clear dramatic intentions
- develop ability to create pace, tempo, rhythm, climax, in an appropriate way
- adopt the latest safe working practices.

4 Scheme of assessment

Find past papers and mark schemes, and specimen papers for new courses, on our website at aqa.org.uk/pastpapers

This specification is designed to be taken over one or two years.

This is a linear qualification. In order to achieve the award, students must complete all assessments at the end of the course and in the same series.

AS exams and certification for this specification are available for the first time in May/June 2017 and then every May/June for the life of the specification.

All materials are available in English only.

4.1 Aims

Courses based on this specification should encourage students to:

- develop and apply an informed, analytical framework for making, performing, interpreting and understanding drama and theatre
- understand the place of relevant theoretical research in informing the processes and practices involved in creating theatre and the place of practical exploration in informing theoretical knowledge of drama and theatre
- develop an understanding and appreciation of how social, cultural and historical contexts of performance texts have influenced the development of drama and theatre
- understand the practices used in 21st century theatre making
- experience opportunities to create theatre both published text-based and devised work
- participate as a theatre maker and as an audience member in live theatre
- understand and experience the collaborative relationship between various roles within theatre
- develop and demonstrate a range of theatre making skills
- develop the creativity and independence to become effective theatre makers
- adopt safe working practices as a theatre maker
- analyse and evaluate their own work and the work of others.

4.2 Assessment components

Component 1: Interpreting drama

This component is a written exam in which students are assessed on their knowledge and understanding of how drama and theatre is developed and performed (AO3) and on their ability to analyse and evaluate the live theatre work of others (AO4).

The paper constitutes 40% of the AS.

Students have 2 hours to answer the paper.

The paper is divided into two compulsory sections:

- Section A: Drama through the ages
- Section B: Live theatre production.

In the exam students are expected to demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the subject content.

See Knowledge and understanding (page 11)

Section A: Drama through the ages

In Section A students answer one two part question (from a choice) on a given extract from one of the set plays listed below.

Specific editions are not prescribed for these plays. However, we've listed the editions we use to set questions.

If you wish to use a different edition, we recommend you source a copy of the one we use to make sure it's similar. This will enable your students to access the questions on the paper. Adaptations are not appropriate.

The choice of set plays for the AS exam from 2017 onwards is:

Playwright	Set play
Sophocles	Antigone (The Three Theban Plays , translated by Robert Fagles, Penguin, 1984, ISBN: 0140444254)
William Shakespeare	Much Ado About Nothing (ed Claire McEachern, Bloomsbury Arden Shakespeare, 2016, ISBN: 1472520297)
Carlo Goldoni	A Servant to Two Masters (ed Lee Hall, Methuen Drama, 1999, ISBN 0413748502)
Henrik Ibsen	Hedda Gabler (Student Edition, Bloomsbury, 2002, ISBN: 0413770702)
Bertolt Brecht	The Caucasian Chalk Circle (ed Eric Bentley, Penguin, 2007, ISBN: 0141189169)
Dario Fo	Accidental Death of an Anarchist (Methuen Drama, 1987, ISBN: 0413156109)
Jez Butterworth	Jerusalem (Nick Hern Books, 2009, ISBN: 1848420501)

The focus of the questions is how the extract might be interpreted in performance to create meaning for an audience.

Students must adopt the perspective of a performer, designer (lighting, sound, set, costume) or director as appropriate to the question.

Students should support their creative ideas with close reference to the text and in answer to questions about design, with sketches and/or diagrams.

Students are expected to know and understand how the play has been constructed to be performed and to communicate meaning, and how the play is informed by its social, cultural and historical context. Students should include reference to the social, cultural and/or historical context of their selected play in their answer to the first part of the question. Students should note the guidance on the exam paper about what constitutes a 'section' of the play.

Section A is marked out of 50 in total; 25 marks for each part of the question.

Students are permitted to refer to a clean copy of their chosen play during the exam. This must not be annotated and must not contain any additional notes, marks, alterations or inclusions.

Students must not answer Section A and Section B of the exam on the same play ie the live production seen cannot be their set play.

Note for teachers whose students may take AS and then A-level: students taking the A-level exam must not answer on both Butterworth's Jerusalem from List A and Teale's Brontë from List B. This prohibited play combination does not pertain to this AS qualification in any way. This note is here to aid future planning.

Section B: Live theatre production

In Section B students answer one two part question (from a choice) on the work of theatre makers in a single live production they have experienced as an audience member as part of their course.

They are expected to refer to particular moments within the production.

They should be able to discuss a variety of aspects of one theatre production giving a personal evaluation and analysis of the theatrical elements that contributed to its success or lack of success.

Students are assessed on their knowledge and understanding of the subject content detailed in Knowledge and understanding (page 11) as well as their analytical and evaluative skills.

Section B is marked out of 30 in total; 15 marks for each part of the question.

Students must not answer Section A and Section B of the exam on the same play ie the live production seen cannot be their set play.

Component 2: Process and performance

This is a practical component in which students are assessed on their ability to create and develop ideas to communicate meaning as part of the theatre making process making connections between dramatic theory and practice (AO1), apply theatrical skills to realise artistic intentions in live performance (AO2) and analyse and evaluate their own work (AO4).

Component 2 constitutes 60% of the AS.

It is marked by teachers and moderated by AQA.

For this component students must practically explore (workshop) and interpret two key extracts each from a different play and complete two assessment tasks:

- formally present Extract 2 to an audience
- produce an individual Portfolio documenting work on both Extract 1 and Extract 2.

Each student's contribution to the performance of Extract 2 is marked out of 30.

Their Portfolio is marked out of 30.

For the performance of Extract 2 students must apply the work and methodologies of one of the prescribed theatre practitioners on our set list (see Prescribed practitioners (page 18)).

Performers and directors in the same group must select the same practitioner. Designers may select different practitioners. All practitioner choices must be compatible.

Each student should seek to ensure that their work is fully consonant with the intentions and methods of their selected practitioner.

Only Extract 2 must have a prescribed practitioner applied.

The key Extract 1 may have:

- no practitioner applied
- the same practitioner applied
- a different practitioner applied.

Guidance on key extracts

Students are required to practically explore (workshop) and interpret two key extracts (Extract 1 and Extract 2) each from a different play.

The two plays chosen must:

- each have been professionally commissioned or professionally produced
- as a whole be a minimum of 35 minutes in duration if performed in full
- offer interpretive opportunities for performers, designers and directors
- be rich and of substance in terms of content, context, theme and/or characterisation
- offer an appropriate level of theatrical challenge to students at AS
- be deemed age-appropriate by the Head of Centre who must submit a declaration to AQA confirming that he/she has approved the plays chosen for practical study
- be different plays from those set plays studied by the student for Component 1
- not be similar to each other in terms of their social, cultural and historical context
- not contravene the prohibited play combinations below.

Teachers must ensure that all students have sufficient opportunity to demonstrate their chosen specialism (to enable them to access the full range of marks).

Prohibited play combinations for Component 2

Set play studied for Component 1	Student must not study any other play that is:
Antigone	Classical Greek tragedy
Much Ado About Nothing	Elizabethan comedy
The Servant of Two Masters	Commedia dell'Arte
Hedda Gabler	19 th century naturalistic tragedy
The Caucasian Chalk Circle	Post World War II epic
Accidental Death of an Anarchist	20 th century political farce
Jerusalem	21 st century anarchic realism

Schools/colleges must seek AQA approval of their play choices by submitting a Play Approval Form directly to their allocated AQA AS/A-level NEA (non-exam assessment) adviser. Teachers must seek approval well in advance of the visiting exam date in case they are not approved. All play approval forms must be submitted by 31 January at the latest.

Play choice approval is an essential part of the specification. Failure to seek timely approval will be treated as maladministration and failure to gain timely approval may result in delays to your students receiving a moderated mark.

If your school/college is new to teaching this specification, please contact AQA to be allocated an AQA NEA Adviser.

The key extracts chosen must be significant to the play as a whole ie pivotal to plot, character(s) or theme(s).

The key extracts chosen must be continuous and individually last at least 10 minutes in duration if the full extract were to be performed.

Students can perform an abridged version of the key extract if needed (to provide a coherent performance within the minimum performance times stated) but the wording itself must not be modified.

Students are not required to perform the full key extract for assessment but both key extracts must be explored practically in their entirety during the course.

We advise the following steps to choose the key extracts:

- Step 1: Choose a play (adhering to the requirements above) and start to explore the play practically.
- Step 2: Focus on one section of the play. The section must be substantial, which is defined as taking at least 10 minutes to perform if performed. Large groups will need to study a longer section, (see Step 3). Students should study the section chosen in depth, taking time to thoroughly explore and interpret it.
- Step 3: Identify how much of the section needs to be performed to meet the relevant AQA minimum performance time. The minimum performance time varies depending on the number of performers in the group. If the group is large, collectively the group is likely to need to perform the whole section they have studied (which may have needed to have been more than the minimum 10 minutes, see Step 2).
- Step 4: Repeat for another play.

NEA Advisers are able to provide guidance about the selection and use of key extracts.

Specialisms

For each key extract students must choose to be assessed as a:

- performer
- lighting designer
- sound designer
- set designer
- costume designer
- puppet designer
- director.

Costume designers may choose to include make-up and/or hair and/or masks. Set designers may choose to include design of props.

They may choose the same specialism or different specialisms for each key extract studied.

Requirements in relation to number of students per specialism are as follows:

Specialism	Requirement for each performance
Performer	Between two and six students
Lighting designer	Maximum of one student
Sound designer	Maximum of one student
Set designer	Maximum of one student
Costume designer	Maximum of one student
Puppet designer	Maximum of one student

Specialism	Requirement for each performance
Director	Maximum of one student

In the case of only two students entering, both students must nominate themselves as performer.

Cross-sex casting is permitted.

Students must apply their chosen specialism as follows:

Specialism chosen	Requirement
Performer	Must perform one character/interpret one role ¹
Lighting designer	Must create one lighting design
Sound designer	Must create one sound design
Set designer	Must create one set design
Costume designer	Must create one costume design for one performer
Puppet designer	Must create one puppet design
Director	Must direct the extract

¹Or more than one role if appropriate eg in a multi-role play.

Teachers must ensure that students have the opportunity to take an equal and active role in the creative and collaborative process regardless of their chosen specialism.

All designs must be assessed in live performance:

- For lighting designers the lights and lighting effects must be seen in the live performance.
- For sound designers the sound and sound effects must be heard in the live performance.
- For set designers the set seen in the live performance should follow the student's design.
- For costume designers the costume designed must be worn in the live performance by the relevant character.
- For puppet designers the puppet designed must be a part of the live performance.

Design students are not assessed on their ability to operate equipment associated with their design.

Therefore although all students are encouraged to develop their theatrical skills to their full potential the following applies:

- Lighting designers are not required to operate the lighting equipment in the live performance.
- Sound designers are not required to operate the sound equipment in the live performance.
- Set designers are not assessed on the set's construction.
- Costume designers are not assessed on the costume's construction.
- Puppet designers are not assessed on puppet construction and need not be the puppet operators during the live performance.

Assessors must assess the design and not its execution.

Designs should be realised in performance to the full extent possible within any practical constraints.

Design students must work to support performers (and director where applicable) and create a design which supports and enhances the live performance work. Students should have an awareness of how their design will impact on the live performance as a whole.

The performance of Extract 2

Each student is required to contribute to a duologue or a group piece.

The assessed performance for this component cannot be a monologue.

Type	Performance duration ²
Duologue (two performers)	Must be between four and ten minutes
Group performance (three or more performers)	Must be between five and thirty minutes

²Students are not required to perform the full key extract.

For group performances playing time for each performance should reflect the number of performance students in the group. For example a group with six performance students should work to the upper time limit.

Teachers are required to ensure minimum performance times are met.

If a student's performance does not meet the required duration a penalty is applied to the mark (the size of the penalty depends on the severity of the timing infringement). It may also result in schools or colleges being investigated for maladministration.

Assessment evidence

The performances/designs presented for assessment must be the student's own work.

Students and teachers will be required to sign a Candidate record form (CRF) to fully authenticate each student's work.

Programme notes

Teachers must provide programme notes for the moderator stating the title of the piece and the name of the practitioner selected.

The programme notes must include photographs of each student so that each student is clearly identifiable to the moderator.

The programme notes must also state each student's chosen specialism and if they are performing, the character(s) they are playing.

In addition each student must offer a statement of their individual dramatic intentions to justify their theatrical choices and provide the moderator with a context for the productions he/she is assessing.

The Statement of Dramatic Intentions must be completed by the student on the template AQA provides. This statement is not assessed directly but should be used to support assessment. Assessment must not take place without reference to the student's Statement of Dramatic Intentions.

Recording

Assessed performances must be recorded with a single camera from an audience perspective from start to finish and be unedited.

Each student being assessed must identify themselves by name and candidate number at the start of the recording.

Students must also state their chosen specialism and chosen plays and if they are performing, the character(s) they are playing.

Close-ups of set, costume and puppet design students' work must be included at the beginning of the recording.

Teachers are required to ensure all recordings meet minimum performance times.

Supervising students

It is expected that during the rehearsal process teachers will support students through the provision of workshops.

Teachers may provide guidance and support to students so that they are clear about the requirements of the task they need to undertake and the marking criteria that will be used.

Teachers may provide guidance to students on the suitability of their response to the task particularly if it means they will not meet the requirements of the specification. Teachers must follow JCQ instructions regarding the provision of feedback to students.

For authentication, regular monitoring should be undertaken by the teacher so that the work is seen at each developmental stage.

Students do not have to be directly supervised at all times during performance preparation but there must be adequate supervision to ensure that work can be authenticated.

Teachers are not permitted to provide any guidance to students whilst the assessed performance is being carried out.

Other requirements

Each performance must be carried out in live performance conditions and under stage lighting. There is no requirement upon students to present their key extract within a full production context ie with full set and costumes.

All performance preparation and the live performance itself must be carried out in a setting which has been formally risk assessed and deemed safe.

The performance space should enable the student to fulfill their chosen role as much as possible.

Students should be aware of health and safety factors as they relate to both their chosen role and the performance piece as a whole.

Non-examinees are permitted to perform alongside performance candidates, but only where absolutely necessary in order to make the group size up to the minimum number of performers. They must be students not staff.

Technical support may be provided to design students. This may be by non-examinee students or staff.

Portfolio

Each student is required to submit a Portfolio in which they:

- explain their creative and interpretative processes in the specialism they have chosen (actor, designer, director) in relation to both key extracts
- analyse and evaluate their individual contribution to the success of the final performance.

The Portfolio must comprise two sections:

- Section 1: Research and performance development (20 marks)
- Section 2: Analysis and evaluation (10 marks).

Section 1: Research and performance development

In this section students explore the dramatic possibilities of the two key extracts in relation to their chosen practitioner and consider how they developed and refined their ideas to formulate their final dramatic intentions for performance.

Students must explain:

- the possibilities offered by each of the key extracts in performance and the opportunities/challenges presented when applying the ideas and methodologies of their chosen practitioner
- the opportunities arising from the social, cultural and historical contexts of each of the key extracts
- their own individual dramatic aims and intentions and those of the duo/group
- how they developed and refined their initial ideas, developed their dramatic aims and intentions and how they incorporated the work and methodologies of their chosen practitioner in these evolving ideas
- how their final ideas and intentions were realised in performance with reference to the key features from the practitioner's working and production practices that they have adopted.

Section 2: Analysis and evaluation

This section offers students the opportunity to demonstrate their analytical and evaluative skills in relation to the final performance of one key extract to a live audience.

Students must analyse and evaluate their individual contribution to the success of the final performance, with reference to how successfully they applied the ideas of their chosen practitioner.

Assessment evidence

The Portfolio evidence presented for assessment must be the student's own work.

Details of admissible evidence types for the Portfolio can be found below:

Evidence for the Portfolio must be one of the following:	Suggested length per section	The Portfolio must not exceed in total (evidence beyond this must not count towards the mark)
Entirely written	600–800 words	3,000 words
Written accompanied by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • annotated photographs and/or • annotated sketches/drawings and/or • annotated cue-sheets. 	3–5 A4 pages	20 pages
Written accompanied by audio/visual/audiovisual recording(s)	300–500 words and 3–5 minutes	2,000 words and 18 minutes
Entirely audio/visual/audiovisual recording(s)	5–6 minutes	20 minutes

Students and teachers must sign a Candidate Record Form (CRF) to authenticate each student's work.

Supervising students

Students do not have to be directly supervised at all times whilst they are completing their Portfolio. However there must be adequate supervision to ensure that work can be authenticated.

Teachers may provide guidance and support to students so that they are clear about the requirements of the task they need to undertake and the marking criteria that will be used.

Teachers may provide guidance to students on the suitability of their response to the task particularly if it means they will not meet the requirements of the specification.

Teachers must follow JCQ instructions regarding the provision of feedback to students.

4.3 Assessment objectives

Assessment objectives (AOs) are set by Ofqual and are the same across all AS Drama and Theatre specifications and all exam boards.

The exams and non-exam assessment will measure how students have achieved the following assessment objectives:

- AO1: Create and develop ideas to communicate meaning as part of the theatre making process, making connections between dramatic theory and practice.
- AO2: Apply theatrical skills to realise artistic intentions in live performance.
- AO3: Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how drama and theatre is developed and performed.
- AO4: Analyse and evaluate their own work and the work of others.

4.3.1 Assessment objective weightings for AS Drama and Theatre

Assessment objectives (AOs)	Component weightings (approx %)		Overall weighting (approx %)
	Component 1	Component 2
AO1		20	20
AO2		30	30
AO3	30		30
AO4	10	10	20
Overall weighting of components	40	60	100

4.4 Assessment weightings

The marks awarded on the papers will be scaled to meet the weighting of the components.

Students' final marks will be calculated by adding together the scaled marks for each component. Grade boundaries will be set using this total scaled mark. The scaling and total scaled marks are shown in the table below.

Component	Maximum raw mark	Scaling factor	Maximum scaled mark
Component 1	80	1	80
Component 2	60	2	120
Total scaled mark:			200

4.5 Assessment criteria

The assessment criteria below details the mark bands with descriptors for the assessment of students' work.

4.5.1 Component 2: Process and performance assessment grids

Component 2 is marked by the teacher out of 60 marks, with marks divided as follows:

- Performance of Extract 2 AO2 (30 marks)
- Portfolio Section 1: Research and performance development AO1 (20 marks)
- Portfolio Section 2: Analysis and evaluation AO4 (10 marks).

Marking the Performance of Extract 2

This is the mark scheme to be used for the Performance of Extract 2 in Component 2.

There are 30 marks available. Award either one mark, two marks, three marks, four marks or five marks for each of the following six criteria.

The assessment objective being assessed is AO2: Apply theatrical skills to realise artistic intentions in live performance.

Mark	Level of theatrical skills	Appropriateness of interpretation to play as a whole	Sensitivity of interpretation to context	Consistency of interpretation with dramatic intentions and methods of the chosen practitioner	Contribution to the effectiveness of the piece	Success in realising individual artistic intention
5	Exceptional level of skill, demonstrating faultless execution.	Exceptionally appropriate interpretation which is entirely appropriate to the playwright's intentions.	Exceptionally sensitive to the context of the play, in an interpretation which achieves total clarity of dramatic intention.	Exceptionally consistent interpretation, emulating the practitioner's approach in every aspect.	Exceptional contribution to the effectiveness of the piece which would be significantly diminished without it.	Exceptional success in realising individual artistic intention in a completely sustained way, engaging the audience fully throughout the performance.
4	Excellent level of skill, demonstrating near perfect execution.	Highly appropriate interpretation which is almost always appropriate to the playwright's intentions.	Very sensitive interpretation to the context of the play which demonstrates an excellent degree of clarity of dramatic intention.	A unified and consistent interpretation which clearly reflects many aspects of the practitioner's approach.	Excellent contribution to the effectiveness of the piece adding much to its success.	Highly successful in realising individual artistic intention in a well-sustained way, engaging the audience throughout the performance.

Mark	Level of theatrical skills	Appropriateness of interpretation to play as a whole	Sensitivity of interpretation to context	Consistency of interpretation with dramatic intentions and methods of the chosen practitioner	Contribution to the effectiveness of the piece	Success in realising individual artistic intention
3	Good level of skill, demonstrating competent execution.	An appropriate interpretation, which is generally appropriate to the playwright's intentions.	A thoughtful interpretation of the context of the play which demonstrates some clear dramatic intentions.	A generally consistent interpretation which reflects some aspects of the practitioner's approach.	Good contribution to the effectiveness of the piece adding to its success in a number of respects.	Largely successful in realising individual artistic intention in a mostly focused way, engaging the audience for most of the performance.
2	Reasonable level of skill, demonstrating mainly secure execution.	A reasonable interpretation which is occasionally appropriate to the playwright's intentions.	Some awareness of the context of the play which demonstrates under-developed dramatic intentions.	An inconsistent interpretation which reflects a few aspects of the practitioner's approach.	Reasonable contribution to the effectiveness of the piece adding a little to its success.	A degree of success in realising individual artistic intention, engaging the audience at a number of points during the performance.
1	Limited level of skill, demonstrating insecure execution.	A limited interpretation which is rarely appropriate to the playwright's intentions.	Limited awareness of the context of the play which demonstrates imprecise dramatic intentions.	An incoherent interpretation which reflects few or no aspects of the practitioner's approach.	Limited contribution to the effectiveness of the piece, sometimes detracting from its success.	Limited realisation of individual artistic intention, rarely engaging the audience.

Mark	Level of theatrical skills	Appropriateness of interpretation to play as a whole	Sensitivity of interpretation to context	Consistency of interpretation with dramatic intentions and methods of the chosen practitioner	Contribution to the effectiveness of the piece	Success in realising individual artistic intention
0	Nothing worthy of credit.	Nothing worthy of credit.	Nothing worthy of credit.	Nothing worthy of credit.	Nothing worthy of credit.	Nothing worthy of credit.

Marking the Portfolio

These are the mark schemes to be used for the Portfolio in Component 2. They are level of response mark schemes.

Level of response mark schemes are broken down into levels, each of which has a descriptor. The descriptor for the level shows the average performance. There are marks in each level. Before you apply the mark scheme to a student's response you should review the response.

Step 1 Determine a level – Start at the lowest level of the mark scheme and use it as a ladder to see whether the response meets the descriptor for that level. The descriptors for the level indicate the different qualities that might be seen in the student's response. If the response meets the lowest level then go to the next one and decide if it meets this level, and so on, until you have a match between the level descriptors and the response.

When assigning a level look at the overall quality of the response. If the response covers different aspects of different levels of the mark scheme you should use a best fit approach and use the variability of the response to decide the mark within the level, ie if the response is predominantly level 3 with a small amount of level 4 material it would be placed in level 3 but awarded a mark near the top because of the level 4 content.

Step 2 Determine a mark – Once you have assigned a level you need to decide on the mark. The exemplar materials used during teacher standardisation will help. You can compare the student's response with the marked and annotated examples to determine if it is the same standard, better or worse.

Marking Section 1

This is the mark scheme is to be used for Section 1 of the Portfolio in Component 2.

There are 20 marks available.

The assessment objective being assessed is AO1: Create and develop ideas to communicate meaning as part of the theatre making process, making connections between dramatic theory and practice.

Band	Mark	Descriptors
4	16–20	Excellent response: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explanations given in Portfolio evidence excellent skills in creating and developing ideas to communicate meaning in both extracts studied. • Evidence of a sophisticated response to the material. • Evidence of full development and refinement of skills and the piece. • Precise details are provided throughout. • Structure and reasoning is logical and systematic. • Responses make insightful connections between dramatic theory and practice.

Band	Mark	Descriptors
3	11–15	Good response: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explanations given in Portfolio evidence good skills in creating and developing ideas to communicate meaning in both extracts studied. • Evidence of a sensitive response to the material. • Evidence of a good degree of development and refinement of skills and the piece. • A number of precise details are provided. • Structure and reasoning is clear and consistent. • Responses make thoughtful connections between dramatic theory and practice.
2	6–10	Reasonable response: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explanations given in Portfolio evidence reasonable skills in creating and developing ideas to communicate meaning in both extracts studied. • Evidence of purposeful engagement with the material. • Evidence of some concerted development and refinement of skills and the piece. • Only some details are given and/or details may lack precision. • Structure and reasoning is present but not always clear. • Responses make some useful connections between dramatic theory and practice.
1	1–5	Limited response: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explanations given in Portfolio evidence limited skills in creating and developing ideas to communicate meaning in both extracts studied. • Evidence of unimaginative engagement with the material. • Evidence of little development and refinement of skills and the piece. • Details are rarely given and/or where details are given, are imprecise. • There is little or no structure or reasoning present. • Responses make undeveloped or no connections between dramatic theory and practice.
0	0	Nothing worthy of credit.

Marking Section 2

This is the mark scheme is to be used for Section 2 of the Portfolio in Component 2.

There are 10 marks available for this section.

The assessment objective being assessed is AO4: Analyse and evaluate their own work and the work of others.

Band	Mark	Descriptors
5	9–10	Well-developed and insightful analysis and evaluation referring in precise detail to the individual's contribution to the success of the final performance and how successfully they applied the ideas of their chosen practitioner. Compelling and fluently structured.
4	7–8	Thorough and thoughtful analysis and evaluation referring in detail to the individual's contribution to the success of the final performance and how successfully they applied the ideas of their chosen practitioner. Engaging and well structured.
3	5–6	Useful and relevant analysis and evaluation referring in detail in places to the individual's contribution to the success of the final performance and how successfully they applied the ideas of their chosen practitioner. Clear with some structure.
2	3–4	Underdeveloped and unfocused analysis and evaluation referring in limited detail to the individual's contribution to the success of the final performance and how successfully they applied the ideas of their chosen practitioner. Not always clear, unstructured.
1	1–2	Largely irrelevant and misunderstood analysis and evaluation referring in negligible detail to the individual's contribution to the success of the final performance and how successfully they applied the ideas of their chosen practitioner. Unclear and disorganised.
0	0	Nothing worth of credit.

5 Non-exam assessment administration

The non-exam assessment (NEA) for this specification is for Component 2 Process and performance.

Visit aqa.org.uk/7261 for detailed information about all aspects of NEA administration.

The head of the school or college is responsible for making sure that NEA is conducted in line with our instructions and Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) instructions.

5.1 Supervising and authenticating

To meet Ofqual's qualification and subject criteria:

- students must sign the Candidate record form (CRF) to confirm that the work submitted is their own
- all teachers who have marked a student's work must sign the declaration of authentication on the CRF. This is to confirm that the work is solely that of the student concerned and was conducted under the conditions laid down by this specification
- teachers must ensure that a CRF and an audiovisual recording of each student's performance/design is provided with each student's work.

Students must have some direct supervision to ensure that the work submitted can be confidently authenticated as their own.

5.2 Avoiding malpractice

Please inform your students of the AQA regulations concerning malpractice. They must not:

- submit work that is not their own
- lend work to other students
- allow other students access to, or use of, their own independently-sourced source material
- include work copied directly from books, the internet or other sources without acknowledgement
- submit work that is word-processed by a third person without acknowledgement
- include inappropriate, offensive or obscene material.

These actions constitute malpractice and a penalty will be given (for example, disqualification).

If you identify malpractice before the student signs the declaration of authentication, you don't need to report it to us. Please deal with it in accordance with your school or college's internal procedures. We expect schools and colleges to treat such cases very seriously.

If you identify malpractice after the student has signed the declaration of authentication, the head of your school or college must submit full details of the case to us at the earliest opportunity. Please complete the form JCQ/M1, available from the JCQ website at jcq.org.uk

You must record details of any work which is not the student's own on the front of the assessment booklet or other appropriate place.

You should consult your exams officer about these procedures.

5.3 Administration for Component 2

Component 2 is teacher marked and moderated by AQA.

Teacher standardisation

We will provide support for using the marking criteria and developing appropriate tasks through teacher standardisation.

For further information about teacher standardisation visit our website at aqa.org.uk/7261

In the following situations teacher standardisation is essential. We will send you an invitation to complete teacher standardisation if:

- moderation from the previous year indicates a serious misinterpretation of the requirements
- a significant adjustment was made to the marks in the previous year
- your school or college is new to this specification.

For further support and advice please speak to your adviser. Email your subject team at drama@aqa.org.uk for details of your adviser.

Internal standardisation

You must ensure that you have consistent marking standards for all students. One person must manage this process and they must sign the Centre declaration sheet to confirm that internal standardisation has taken place.

Internal standardisation may involve:

- all teachers marking some sample pieces of work to identify differences in marking standards
- discussing any differences in marking at a training meeting for all teachers involved
- referring to reference and archive material, such as previous work or examples from our teacher standardisation.

Commenting

To meet Ofqual's qualification and subject criteria, you must show clearly how marks have been awarded against the assessment criteria in this specification.

Your comments will help the moderator see, as precisely as possible, where you think the students have met the assessment criteria.

You must record your comments on the Candidate record form.

Submitting marks

You must check that the correct marks are written on the Candidate record form and that the total is correct.

The deadline for submitting all your students' marks to AQA for moderation is given at aqa.org.uk/keydates

Keeping students' work

Students' work must be kept under secure conditions from the time that it is marked, with completed CRF. After the moderation period and the deadline for Enquiries about Results (or once any enquiry is resolved) you may return the work to students.

Moderation

You must send all your students' marks to us by the date given at aqa.org.uk/deadlines. You will be asked to send a sample of your students' NEA evidence to your moderator.

You must show clearly how marks have been awarded against the assessment criteria in this specification. Your comments must help the moderator see, as precisely as possible, where you think the students have met the assessment criteria. You must:

- record your comments on the Candidate Record Form (CRF)
- check that the correct marks are written on the CRF and that the total is correct.

The moderator re-marks a sample of the evidence and compares this with the marks you have provided to check whether any changes are needed to bring the marking in line with our agreed standards. Any changes to marks will normally keep your rank order but, where major inconsistencies are found, we reserve the right to change the rank order.

School and college consortia

If you are in a consortium of schools or colleges with joint teaching arrangements (where students from different schools and colleges have been taught together but entered through the school or college at which they are on roll), you must let us know by:

- filling in the Application for Centre Consortium Arrangements for centre-assessed work, which is available from the JCQ website jcq.org.uk
- appointing a consortium co-ordinator who can speak to us on behalf of all schools and colleges in the consortium. If there are different co-ordinators for different specifications, a copy of the form must be sent in for each specification.

We will allocate the same moderator to all schools and colleges in the consortium and treat the students as a single group for moderation.

All the work must be available at the lead school or college.

5.4 Factors affecting individual students

For advice and guidance about arrangements for any of your students, please email us as early as possible at eos@aqa.org.uk

Occasional absence: you should be able to accept the occasional absence of students by making sure they have the chance to make up what they have missed. You may organise an alternative supervised session for students who were absent at the time you originally arranged.

Lost work: if work is lost you must tell us how and when it was lost and who was responsible, using our special consideration online service at aqa.org.uk/eaqa

Special help: where students need special help which goes beyond normal learning support, please use the CRF to tell us so that this help can be taken into account during moderation.

Students who move schools: students who move from one school or college to another during the course sometimes need additional help to meet the requirements. How you deal with this depends on when the move takes place. If it happens early in the course, the new school or college should be responsible for the work. If it happens late in the course, it may be possible to arrange for the moderator to assess the work as a student who was 'Educated Elsewhere'.

5.5 After assessment

You will receive a report when the results are issued, which will give feedback on the appropriateness of the tasks set, interpretation of the marking criteria and how students performed in general.

We will give you the final marks for each component when the results are issued.

We may need to keep some of your students' work to meet Ofqual requirements for awarding, archiving or standardisation purposes.

6 General administration

You can find information about all aspects of administration, as well as all the forms you need, at aqa.org.uk/examsadmin

6.1 Entries and codes

You only need to make one entry for each qualification – this will cover all the question papers, non-exam assessment and certification.

Every specification is given a national discount (classification) code by the Department for Education (DfE), which indicates its subject area.

If a student takes two specifications with the same discount code, further and higher education providers are likely to take the view that they have only achieved one of the two qualifications. Please check this before your students start their course.

Qualification title	AQA entry code	DfE discount code
AQA Advanced Subsidiary GCE in Drama and Theatre	7261	TBC

This specification complies with:

- Ofqual General conditions of recognition that apply to all regulated qualifications
- Ofqual GCE qualification level conditions that apply to all GCEs
- Ofqual GCE subject level conditions that apply to all GCEs in this subject
- all other relevant regulatory documents.

The Ofqual qualification accreditation number (QAN) is 601/8585/5.

6.2 Overlaps with other qualifications

There is overlapping content in the AS and A-level Drama and Theatre specifications. This helps you teach the AS and A-level together.

6.3 Awarding grades and reporting results

The AS qualification will be graded on a five-point scale: A, B, C, D and E.

Students who fail to reach the minimum standard for grade E will be recorded as U (unclassified) and will not receive a qualification certificate.

6.4 Resits and shelf life

Students can resit the qualification as many times as they wish, within the shelf life of the qualification.

6.5 Set texts

There may be changes to the set play lists within the lifetime of the specification. We will give schools and colleges at least nine months' notice of any changes prior to first teaching of a two year course. We do not expect there to be any changes to the texts within the first five years.

Notice of any change will be communicated to schools and colleges via our exam bulletins and on our website.

6.6 Previous learning and prerequisites

There are no previous learning requirements. Any requirements for entry to a course based on this specification are at the discretion of schools and colleges.

However, we recommend that students should have the skills and knowledge associated with a GCSE Drama course or equivalent.

6.7 Access to assessment: diversity and inclusion

General qualifications are designed to prepare students for a wide range of occupations and further study. Therefore our qualifications must assess a wide range of competences.

The subject criteria have been assessed to see if any of the skills or knowledge required present any possible difficulty to any students, whatever their ethnic background, religion, sex, age, disability or sexuality. If any difficulties were encountered, the criteria were reviewed again to make sure that tests of specific competences were only included if they were important to the subject.

As members of the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) we participate in the production of the JCQ document Access Arrangements and Reasonable Adjustments: General and Vocational qualifications. We follow these guidelines when assessing the needs of individual students who may require an access arrangement or reasonable adjustment. This document is published on the JCQ website at jcq.org.uk

6.7.1 Students with disabilities and special needs

We can make arrangements for disabled students and students with special needs to help them access the assessments, as long as the competences being tested are not changed. Access arrangements must be agreed before the assessment. For example, a Braille paper would be a reasonable adjustment for a Braille reader but not for a student who does not read Braille.

We are required by the Equality Act 2010 to make reasonable adjustments to remove or lessen any disadvantage that affects a disabled student.

If you have students who need access arrangements or reasonable adjustments, you can apply using the Access arrangements online service at aqa.org.uk/eaqa

6.7.2 Special consideration

We can give special consideration to students who have been disadvantaged at the time of the assessment through no fault of their own – for example a temporary illness, injury or serious problem such as the death of a relative. We can only do this after the assessment.

Your exams officer should apply online for special consideration at aqa.org.uk/eaqa

For more information and advice about access arrangements, reasonable adjustments and special consideration please see aqa.org.uk/access or email accessarrangementsqueries@aqa.org.uk

6.8 Working with AQA for the first time

If your school or college has not previously offered any AQA specification, you need to register as an AQA centre to offer our specifications to your students. Find out how at aqa.org.uk/becomeacentre

6.9 Private candidates

This specification is not available to private candidates.
