BERNARD MAKES A SPLASH!

Lisa Stickley

Bernard has been the swimming pool manager for a long time, and practises his diving at night when no one else is around. When his swimming pool holds a contest for high-diving hounds from around the world, he hopes that he can work up enough courage to compete.

Lisa Stickley's unique and quirky style brings this heart-warming tale to life with much to explore on every page. This story shares a meaningful message about courage, and self-belief and the importance of supporting one another to step out of our comfort zone.

A FUN TALE OF MISCHIEF TOLD USING SARAH DYER'S PLAYFUL
COLLAGE STYLE.

Sarah Dyer is an award-winning illustrator based in Hove. In between writing and illustrating, Sarah attends many festivals and schools to carry out events and workshops and is a part-time visiting lecturer on the Foundation and BA Illustration courses at Kingston University.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Sarah Dyer

Ellis and Erin are twins, and they love to draw and climb and play. They also love looking for trouble! Will they find trouble in the kitchen or the bathroom? Maybe in their bedroom, or outside in their garden? Who knows!

SPOILER ALERT– Trouble is the name of a furry friend! The search leads them on a funny and delightful journey all over their home.

THE FOURTH TALE FROM THE BRILLIANT EMILY RAND EXPLORING THE ENVIRONMENT, RECYCLING AND COMMUNITY KINDNESS.

Emily Rand is an author and illustrator living in London with her partner and daughter. This is her fourth book with Tate. She was recently one of ten illustrators selected to take part in the British Council's Drawing Words exhibition curated by Lauren Child, bringing together some of the most exciting children's book illustration to come out of the UK in recent years.

THE HOUSE FULL OF STUFF

Emily Rand

Mr McDuff lives in a house full of stuff! He loves collecting things – bits and pieces he thinks could be useful one day, but his neighbours call it junk! They keep their houses neat and tidy, and hurry by without saying hello. Everyone except Mo, that is. Can Mo and Mr. McDuff convince the rest of the neighbourhood that his stuff is useful?

Together, Mo and Mr McDuff are able to shine a light on the importance of upcycling and having fun!

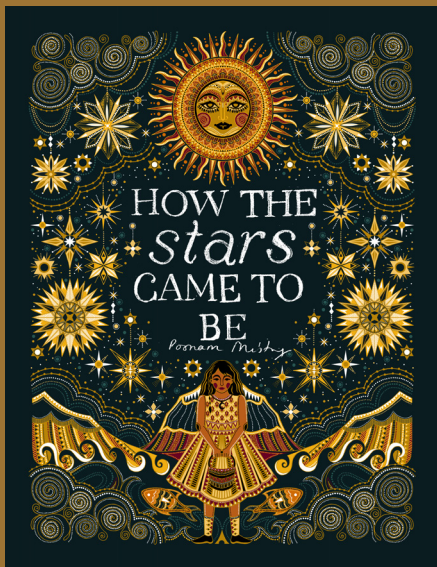

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED HOW THE STARS CAME TO BE? THIS BEAUTIFULLY DESIGNED FOLKTALE-STYLE STORY WITH FOILED STARS MAKES THE PERFECT WINTER'S GIFT TO COSY UP WITH!

Poonam Mistry is a freelance illustrator living in the UK. Her style incorporates her love of nature and her Indian roots and explores the relationship between pattern, shapes and colour.

HOW THE STARS CAME TO BE

Poonam Mistry

The Fisherman's Daughter loves to dance in the Sunlight and bathe in the glow of the Moon, but when the Moon disappears for a few nights each month, she worries about her father and how he will find his way home from sea in the deep darkness. When the Sun finds her sobbing one morning, he offers her a way to ensure that there will always be light in the darkness.

EVERYTHING STARTS WITH A QUESTION; WHY DO WE NEED BOOKS?

Alessandro Sanna
is an artist. In his books he often uses colours in a peculiar way, applying special drawing and painting techniques.
He's very active in the education of children, organising art workshops to help them to express their creativity and grow
their imagination.

CASTLE OF BOOKS

Alessandro Sanna

The two children in Castle of Books go on a creative journey to discover the answer to the question, 'Why do we need books?'. As they look through piles and piles of books and discover the incredible worlds within, they find lots of answers to this question; to observe, to discover, to imagine, to understand each other and so much more.

MEET THE ARTIST: FRANK BOWLING

Meet the Artist is a series of activity books that introduces children to renowned artists in a fun and engaging way. Each book introduces an artist's prominent themes, ideas and key artwork.

Frank Bowling has led an extraordinarily colourful life spanning three continents, eight decades and countless canvases. He is one of Britain's most important abstract painters. He transforms the world around him into art.

Wearing his paint spattered apron, comfy clogs and a knitted scarf, join Frank through his studios and splash, pour, drip and splatter through exciting art activities! Make an imaginary world with stencils and create layered paintings.

Zoë Whitley is Senior Curator at the Hayward Gallery and was formerly Curator, International Art at Tate Modern and co-curator of the Soul of a Nation exhibition. Her favourite pastimes are talking and travelling, both usually art-related.

Hélène Baum is a Berlin based illustrator who draws her inspiration from mythology, black history, fashion, patterns, ethnic artefacts and nature, creating colourful and playful compositions.

THE ARTY FACT BOOK

Gary Panton

How much do you know about the art that surrounds you? There are amazing stories behind some of our best-known (and lesser-known) paintings. Some works of art are created by wacky geniuses and others by dark, tormented talents. Some artists have become even more famous than the work they created, because of the weird and wonderful methods they used. Where else but the art world can you find secret codes, sneaky heists, mysterious myths and even some very talented animals?

Get ready for some awesome – and very arty – facts!

THE MYSTERY OF THE MISSING CAKE

Claudia Boldt

When Harold is invited to a fancy dress party, he and his friends must devise some fantastic outfits and fun games. The party couldn't be going better, but then, suddenly the birthday cake is stolen and the birthday boy is distraught! Everyone is a prime suspect in the mystery of the missing cake. Can Harold piece the clues together to solve the mystery and save the party?

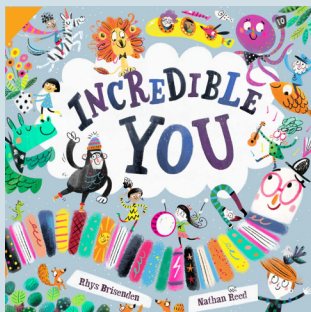

A funny story which encourages honesty and sharing - don't miss this fantastic adventure starring everyone's favourite fox detective, the irrepressible Harold!
